Missouri State Officer Candidate Guide

STATE OFFICER CANDIDATE
Application with Attachments

POSTMARK DEADLINE: MARCH 15

MAIL TO:
LESLIE KERNS, FBLA STATE ADVISER
DEPARTMENT OF ELEMENTARY
& SECONDARY EDUCATION
P.O. BOX 480
JEFFERSON CITY, MO 65102

Dear Prospective State Officer Candidate:

Congratulations! You have taken the first step toward running for a state office.

This guide will provide you with essential information that you will need to know to become a state officer. The experience of running for state office is challenging and exciting, but not always easy. To be in the campaign arena with other state officer candidates, you must have determination, commitment, be well prepared, and be willing to make a great effort.

Once in that arena, the next challenge is to get elected. You need to persuade the voting delegates at the State Leadership Conference (SLC) that you are the one for the job! A state office is earned on merit and political astuteness, not on the amount of campaign money spent or by the volume of give away items used. The competition will be fierce. Other candidates will be equally determined, committed and prepared, but only one will be elected to each position. It is the democratic system, and it works!

Preparing, campaigning, caucusing, appropriate attire, speaking--all come together to form a learning experience you will use for the rest of your life. Campaigning gets in your blood, and you may find yourself running for office again in your school, profession, association, or government. In other words, the experience itself is invaluable, even if you are not elected. Every candidate is a winner!

You cannot become a state officer alone. You need the support and encouragement of many people.

*Your parents, school administrators, and especially your FBLA adviser need to be informed and support your effort. State officers and their local advisers attend several conferences and workshops, and should plan on missing 5 to 10 days of school during their term of office.

*Your local adviser approves and signs your application for state office and serves as your coach and guide through the entire process. Your adviser is also your link to the FBLA-PBL state adviser.

*Your local president and other local officers need to support your candidacy and rally behind your campaign.

*Your campaign manager is selected by you to help plan your election campaign. This person may introduce you at a general session of the SLC, if you become a candidate.

Earning a place with other state officer candidates is challenging, but you can make it if you try!

By the way...it is fun! Good luck and remember the application postmark deadline is March 15!

FBLA State Adviser

QUALIFICATIONS FOR STATE OFFICE

Missouri State Chapter Handbook
FBLA Bylaws
Article VI, Section 1 & 2, Officers

Section 1. (a) Officers of the FBLA Division consist of a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, reporter, parliamentarian and other officers as are necessary.

(b) The term for elected officers will extend to the end of the FBLA fiscal year, June 30, corresponding with the school year for which they were elected.

Section 2. Qualifications for an officer position are: must be an active member [as defined in the Bylaws, ARTICLE II, Section 2, a. (1)]; have endorsement of the local chapter; be recommended by the local chapter adviser; have at least one full year remaining in high school; be knowledgeable about parliamentary procedure; and file an official application with the FBLA Division's adviser before the FBLA Division's Leadership Conference in accordance with the officer candidate application guidelines.

NOTE: FBLA Candidates for State Office must have paid state dues by the dues receipt deadline of February 15.

DUTIES OF STATE OFFICERS

a. The president (1) serves as chairman of the FBLA Division's Executive Council; (2) calls meetings of the FBLA Division's Executive Council and the FBLA Division's Leadership Conference; (3) presides at council meetings and the business sessions of the state leadership conference; (4) appoints appropriately needed committees and committee chairmen; (5) maintains close and continuing communication with the state chapter adviser; (6) and performs duties for the promotion and development of local, district, state, and national FBLA.

b. The vice president (1) presides at meetings in the absence of the president; (2) assumes the duties of the presidency should that position become vacant; (3) organizes the officer candidates' briefing session; (4) oversees the campaign table setup; (5) organizes the officer candidate speaking session; (6) conducts the election of officers at the state leadership conference; (7) performs other duties directed by the president; (8) and participates in activities for the promotion and development of local, district, state, and national FBLA.

c. The secretary (1) performs duties common to the office; (2) records the minutes of the executive council meeting; (3) keeps an accurate record of any business brought before the voting delegates at the annual leadership conference; (4) presents the state chapter's annual report; (5) performs other duties directed by the president; (6) and participates in activities for the promotion and development of local, district, state, and national FBLA.

d. The treasurer (1) presents the state conference and state chapter financial reports to the executive council; (2) assists with state conference activities; (3) performs other duties directed by the president; (4) and participates in activities for the promotion and development of local, district, state, and national FBLA.

e. The reporter (1) prepares material to encourage local chapters to initiate press releases; (2) requests material from local chapters for the state newsletter; (3) arranges for the publication of as many issues of the state newsletter as allowed by the budget; (4) forwards state news to the national office; (5) updates and prepares material for FBLA On-line; (6) performs other duties directed by the president; (7) and participates in activities for the promotion and development of local, district, state, and national FBLA.

f. The parliamentarian (1) assists the president and vice president in the use of proper rules of order; (2) ensures that business is conducted properly at the FBLA Division's Executive Council meeting and other business meetings of FBLA; (3) uses Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, as a guide for the decisions not otherwise outlined; (4) performs other duties assigned by the president; (5) and participates in activities for the promotion and development of local, state, and national FBLA.

GUIDELINES CAMPAIGN MATERIAL SCREENING

In the interest of conserving paper and minimizing trash, the following policy revision will be enforced at the upcoming state leadership conference. Please read the State Officer Candidate Activities starting on page C12 of the Missouri FBLA Handbook.

Each officer candidate's informational campaign material will be limited to one 8 ½" x 11" inch sheet of paper. Sufficient copies (360) must be postmarked by April 1 for inclusion with each local chapter's registration materials.

The following guidelines should help to ensure uniform understanding of this policy:

Pre-conference

The information sheet mailed to the state office should contain such information as qualifications for office, campaign platform, record of service, academic record, school activities, memberships and offices held, etc.

This same type of informational material may still be mailed in advance to local chapters in promotion of the candidate.

This type of informational material MAY NOT BE HANDED OUT at the State Leadership Conference. One copy will be included with each chapter's state conference registration materials.

Conference

Promotional favors may not be handed out following the conclusion of the campaign speeches.

Tags no larger than a standard size business card may be affixed to promotional favors noting the candidate's name, office and/or slogan.

Examples of "promotional favors" include prepackaged (by the manufacturer) candy, beverages and other foodstuff, rulers, buttons, pins, erasers, pencils, pens, stickers, etc. No food or drink items may be homemade.

Business cards (2" x 4" or smaller) will be allowed but may only be printed with the candidate's name, office, picture, and/or slogan.

Hand-held posters and signs carried by the candidate's supporters in promotion of the candidate are allowed during campaigning, but may not be left on-site.

T-shirts, hats, stickers and buttons worn in endorsement of a candidate are permitted only during campaigning.

No more than five people may be at a candidates campaign booth for setup and campaigning. (This includes candidate. One adviser ticket will be included in addition to the other five tickets.)

No candidate may hand out any campaign material, candy or propaganda (no signs, t-shirts, stickers, buttons or business cards, etc.) outside the campaign area from 1-2:30 p.m.

If you provide a drawing for a give-away item, the value of the item may be no more than $25.

EVERYTHING YOU PLAN TO USE IN ANY WAY IN YOUR ELECTION CAMPAIGN, INCLUDING YOUR CAMPAIGN SPEECH SCRIPT, SIGNS, BUSINESS CARDS, T-SHIRTS, PROMOTIONAL FAVORS, ETC., MUST BE SCREENED. ONE COPY OF YOUR SPEECH MUST BE LEFT WITH THE SCREENING COMMITTEE. ANY SIGNIFICANT VARIATION FROM YOUR APPROVED CAMPAIGN SPEECH SCRIPT WILL SUBJECT YOU TO DISQUALIFICATION.

ELECTIONS RULES AND REGULATIONS

Section 1. The officers of the FBLA Division are elected annually at the FBLA Division's Leadership Conference by a simple majority vote of the authorized voting delegates who are present from active local chapters in good standing with the state and national organization.

Section 2. In the event that the FBLA Division's Leadership Conference is not held, officers are to be elected by a simple majority of valid ballots returned from authorized voting delegates of chapters in good standing with the state and national organization.

Section 3. A lack of a simple majority in the vote for any office results in another round of voting with the candidate having the least number of votes after each ballot being removed from the running until a candidate receives a majority vote.

Section 4. A tie in the vote for any office to determine the two general election candidates will result in a runoff vote to break the tie.

Section 5. After one runoff vote for the FBLA Division's offices of president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and reporter, the incoming council members and outgoing elected officers who are present are to cast one vote each to break the tie.

Section 6. The offices in the FBLA Division are filled in the following order when the election of the FBLA Division's officers is held at the FBLA Division's Leadership Conference: president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and reporter.

Section 7. No two state officers shall be elected from the same local chapter.

Section 8. Representation from each district on the FBLA Division's Executive Council is determined by active chapters within the district.

ADVISER INFORMATION

“Mentor” is defined as a trusted counselor or guide, a tutor or coach. This definition aptly describes the role of a state officer’s local chapter adviser. From the moment a student considers running until his term of office ends, the adviser is a key figure.

The adviser counsels the student on the qualifications and duties of a state officer and helps with the decision to run. The adviser guides the student on the campaign process and serves as tutor and coach during the officer’s term of service.

The adviser works closely with the officer’s state adviser and is kept fully informed of all aspects of the officer’s work.

The adviser helps the officer to accept these responsibilities:

- * Acquire good basic knowledge of the organization and be capable of discussing ideas and issues intelligently.

- * Portray the proper image when representing the organization. Wear appropriate business attire; use correct grammar, proper manners and etiquette, good attitude and PR skills in working with individual members and chapters; be a good listener.

- * Prepare appropriate speeches when asked to visit local, state, business and civic groups. Local advisers should review speech material, outlines, etc., and the officer should practice the speech before an appearance.

- * Answer correspondence and send “thank you” letters promptly. The local adviser should proofread all correspondence before mailing. The officer should write correspondence and articles and present them to the adviser for suggestions and any necessary changes.

As a state officer adviser:

- *You are a member of the State Chapter Board of Directors.

- *You should contact the state adviser if you have questions.

- *You will accept responsibility for assisting officers. Secure the endorsement and support of parents, school officials and employers if applicable.

- *You will attend the Leadership Training Meeting in August. This important meeting is used to formulate the officers’ responsibilities and program of work for the year and give advisers insight into their supporting role. State FBLA-PBL pays for the advisers’ (one per officer) room (half cost of double room) and meals during the meeting.

Be prepared to devote personal time to your state officer. Helping your officer to get organized is important. The officer must learn to budget time and keep materials readily available. Adequate file space and a good filing system are essential. Secure the assistance of a good secretary--an FBLA member who will devote time and effort to you and your officer. All must pitch in during critical periods.

Be informed about state programs, priorities and critical issues so ideas and counsel may be given to your officer. Don't expect the officer to understand issues and have background information without assistance.

Present a positive image of FBLA-PBL and its programs.

Take an active part in helping your officer reach personal and organizational goals.

Accompany the officer when travel is necessary. (FBLA-PBL, Inc., Board of Directors July 5, 1984: "...that all FBLA-PBL members under eighteen (18) years of age must be accompanied by or assigned to an adult chaperone in order to attend any FBLA sponsored functions.") Assist your officer in making travel plans.

EXPENSES

Funds are available from the state budget to cover reasonable travel, lodging and meal expenses for the state officer and adviser for the Leadership Training in August and for the January SLC Planning meeting.

A stipend of $250 is paid to each state officer and $100 for one adviser attending the NFLC in the fall.

Necessary travel expenses are paid by the state chapter for the state president to attend and bring greetings at the opening session of MBEA at ACTE in July.

Lodging is provided by the state chapter for state officers at the SLC in April.

The state association will reimburse each officer up to $100 for a blazer and/or other required clothing.

All other expenses incurred while in office are the responsibility of the local chapter, school district, or individual officer.

IF YOU ARE ELECTED

If you are elected, you will become a member of the state FBLA team responsible for implementing the policies and program of work of the state chapter.

Your role and that of the other members of the executive council will be to work within the budget, program of work and policies already established.

In that role, you and your adviser are expected to attend the following:

- *Institute for Leaders (IFL)
- *Summer National Leadership Conference
- *Summer Executive Council Meeting and Leadership Training
- *National Fall Leadership Conference
- *January/February State Leadership Conference Planning Meeting
- *April State Leadership Conference

The State FBLA President, in addition to the above, travels to the following:

July (1 day), ACTE Conference

While attending these conferences, you will be expected to perform the many duties assigned to your office. You will have a demanding schedule with little free time. Should you be unable to attend the required conferences, you will be subject to removal from office. If these constraints seem too demanding, you should seriously reconsider your decision to run for office.

*See separate enclosure for specific conference dates.

GUIDELINES FOR FBLA OFFICER CANDIDATES

Local chapters of FBLA are urged to recruit applicants for FBLA state offices. Applicants for FBLA state offices should be selected from local chapter members who have provided service and leadership in the FBLA activities at the local level. The procedure to follow is simple.

1. The local chapter sponsor who observes exceptional leadership qualities in a member should discuss with the member the possibility of being considered for a state office. If the member is interested, he/she should complete the State Chapter Officer Application.
2. The local chapter sponsor should certify the application in the place provided below. Then forward the application, speech/skit, signed code of conduct form and signed adviser certification form to the state adviser postmarked by MARCH 15.
3. The sponsor and prospective applicant should be familiar with the general regulations that govern the nomination, election and duties of state officers. See Articles VI, VII, VIII in the state bylaws.
4. A prospective candidate may indicate a second choice of office in the event the number of applicants for the office of his/her first choice is overcrowded.

ADVISER'S CERTIFICATION

The credentials for _____, who is the choice of our chapter, are attached. To the best of my knowledge, he/she meets the qualifications for the office of State _____, and, if elected, will receive the enthusiastic support of the school, the chapter, and the sponsor in the execution of the duties of the office.

I understand it is my responsibility to guide my student throughout the entire campaign process making sure all campaign policies are followed. I will attend all campaign functions including officer campaign material screening and campaign setup.
